SWARTHMORE 17; GEORGE WASHINGTON, 0.

Penn's Conquerors Held to Small Score by Buff and Blue.

Looking back at a score of 30-0, by which we lost last year's game, and reviewing a recent victory over the University of Pennsylvania, the upholders of the Buff and Blue did battle Saturday with Swarthmore, one of the strongest teams in the country, and though defeated, let no one think for an instant that such a defeat carried with it any disgrace. The most ardent supporters of the team could not have hoped to hold such heavy and experienced opponents to a smaller score, and when we realize that only 9 of these 17 points were really earned, we have all the more reason to be proud of our football team.

Miserable weather and a muddy, slippery field hampered both teams considerably, and prevented any really fast play, but any of our eleven will vouch for the fact that there was no loafing during the 40 minutes of play. From the moment we received their first kick-off until the whistle blew at the finish every man was right in the game. Our first attempts netted no gain and Steenerson punted to O'Brien. The ball changed hands once or twice, but finally by hard work Swarthmore reached our 15-yard line, and 11 minutes after the beginning of play, O'Brien skirted our left end on a fake kick for the first touchdown. Pittman missed goal. Swarthmore, 5; George Washington, 0. The second score occurred after a fumble in the same half when Rowland, Swarthmore's left end secured the oval and carried it over, after a 20-yard dash. This goal was kicked. Swarthmore, 11; George Washington, 0.

In the second half, with several changes, Swarthmore was able to secure but 6 more points, 4 of them being obtained on a pretty field goal by Waring, the diminutive quarterback, and the other 2 through a safety by Steenerson.

Swarthmore's program was considerably different in the two halves. In the first they contented themselves with hammering our line, but during the second half trick plays and fake formations were employed almost exclusively, but none of them netted any long gains. Our longest gain resulted from a forward pass for fifteen yards. Though being able to gain two or three yards with considerable regularity, our backs experienced difficulty in securing the necessary 10 yards, first down being obtained but once. Referee Curtis' penalties was one of the features of the game, his remarkable interpretation of the new rules being repugnant to both teams in several instances.

THE LINE-UP:

Notes of the Swarthmore Game.

Our boys missed the freshmen who met them at the train last year and carried their suit cases up to College, but the youngsters were brought into requisition later on.

The whole team played a plucky, hard game, and having passed over the hard part of the schedule, can now look for a string of victories from this time on.

Boarman evidently felt much relief when he discovered that Maxwell would not be present at the game, for he played like a star, getting down under punts and tackling the runner like a second Torrey.

"Gibbie" once got the ball and started in the wrong direction, but Intercollegiate Debating.

A meeting was held last Wednesday evening of the Intercollegiate Debating Council mainly for the purpose of arranging the schedule of intercollegiate debates for the present academic year.

It appears that the University of Virginia will have difficulty in financing an intercollegiate debate at Charlottesville, and therefore there is some doubt whether the Virginia debate will take place this year.

An endeavor is being made to have the Cincinnati debate considerably earlier than last year, but it is doubtful whether the Cincinnati authorities will accept a date earlier than the middle of February.

Georgetown has been approached vigorously with regard to a debate to terminate the academic year; but no answer has yet been received. It is understood that an effort will be made to arrange for a debate with either Johns Hopkins University or Brown University, so that between now and next June we shall have three intercollegiate debates.

In connection with the arrangement for a lecture on "Orators and Oratory" to be given by Professor Williams of the Maryland Agricultural College, a plan for a series of lectures on subjects of this character was discussed by the Council and will be submitted to the several debating societies for their consideration.

Some months ago an intercollegiate honor society was organized at Oberlin for men who had achieved distinction in intercollegiate debating. Among the institutions interested in the movement are Minnesota, Northwestern, Chicago, Iowa, Illinois, Michigan and Wisconsin universities. Steps have been taken looking toward the formation at the George Washington University of a chapter of this fraternity, which will be known as the Delta Sigma Rho.

Debaters' Medals.

At the Fall Convocation last Wednesday, medals were awarded to the Honor men of the final Intersociety debate last June. First Honor, a gold medal, was given to J. T. Kennedy, Law '07; second to E. J. Lundy, Law '07; third to M. W. Patterson, Law '07. All were members of the Needham Debating Society, the first being from Pennsylvania and the other two from Arkansas.

Professor Veditz Honored.

Partly in recognition of his services in forming the American Sociological Society, Professor C. W. A. Veditz, of the George Washington University, has recently been elected a member of the International Institute of Sociology, an honorary organization with narrowly limited membership. Only seven Americans enjoy this distinction, among them Lester F. Ward, Franklin H. Giddings, Carroll D. Wright and Albion W. Small. Notwithstanding the international scope of the Institute, it has but 134 members, and is limited to a maximum of 300.

Beard tackled him before he had gone far enough to do much harm.

"Big man" Sommers had a proposition on his hands when he ran up against Millman, the giant left tackle.

Gunning's end was literally impregnable, the Swarthmore backs being able to secure no gain on that side. Keep your eye on that boy. He's a hard worker.

The team ate its meals in the college dining room, with the students and after supper, Saturday evening, when the men arose to leave the room, it was the signal for a burst of cheering which continued until they had all passed out of the door. It is such courtesy and friendliness manifested toward visiting teams which has made Swarthmore so generally popular. In addition to this, the freshmen were forced to double up and give our men their beds, and also carry their satchels to the train for them, though interrupted in the midst of their own supper.

"Red" Moore played a corking game at guard, and we extend him our congratulations.

"Steenie" easily outpunted his opponents by an average of from 5 to 10 yards. The Captain is "something on a stick" these days.

Krueger, Humphrey and Millman played star games for Swarthmore.

Swarthmore's line averages over 200. How does that look?

Well, we'll show our old rival Western Maryland how to play football next Saturday. Come down and see us do it!

J. Babcock's governor wouldn't let him skip town Friday evening, so Lacarioni, a new man filled his place at full back.

Needham Debating Society.

The underpaid, much-maligned, down-trodden, "mendicant" government clerk came in for his full share of sympathy from the debaters upon the affirmative of the question, "Resolved that the President should be authorized to veto items in the Appropriation Bill," last Friday evening. According to these gentlemen Congressmen appropriate large sums of money for public buildings and other improvements to be made in their several districts to the extent that the general government at Washington suffers from lack of funds. On the one hand one observed the most unbridled extravagance and on the other the most stringent paucity.

Riders, often passed in appropriation bills, were as effective in their results as bona fide measures and should be subject to the approval of the executive. We were assured that all these evils, and many others, would be permanently cured, "without drugs," were the President authorized to "knife" items in the appropriation bill.

The negative maintained that this would result in giving the President too much control over matters of legislation. The Congressman who did not please him would find that a particular item appropriating sums for his district had been vetoed, and thus would be compelled to come to terms and obey the administrative whip. The tendency of the executive department to usurp the functions of the legislative was criticised.

When the judges returned from the consulting room, Mr. Rowe confided that they had discovered that among the Romans, the Teutons and the Anglo-Saxons the excessive exercise of the veto power had been responsible for the establishment of monarchies. He described in detail the several processes of evolution which had produced this result, and concluded his lengthy, masterly and eloquent "opinion" by stating that the negative had won and first and second honors had been awarded Messrs. Aldrich and Carpenter respectively.

Columbian Elects Officers.

At the regular semiannual election of officers last Friday night, the Columbia Debating Society elected the following:

R. I. Moore, President.

R. A. Rehr, Vice-President.

Hutchins, Secretary.

J. M. Sheridan, Treasurer.

M. S. Ross, Critic.

E. H. Andrews, Press Representative.

A. C. Agnew, Intercollegiate Debate Representative.

H. H. Riddleberger, Chairman;
F. H. Twyeffort and Kartes, Executive Committee.

The first regular debate will be held Friday evening at 8 o'clock, the question being, "Resolved, That postal savings banks should be established throughout the United States."

The affirmative will be upheld by R. M. Jones, F. H. Twyeffort and A. H. Hughey; the negative by R. I. Moore, E. H. Andrews and M. Levin.

Freshmen football managers, for freshmen teams, have been abolished at Yale. The experiment of having Juniors take charge, is being tried.

The latchstring is always out at the Young Men's Christian Association.

But a special invitation is extended to the Men of Washington to visit the new Association House at 1736 G St., any day or night in October.

Dental.

The Senior Dental Class held a meeting on Monday night, October 15th, and unanimously elected the following class officers for the ensuing year.

W. F. Lawrence, President.

Clyde W. Allen, Vice-President.

Chas. G. Shoemaker, Secretary and Treasurer.

Chas. E. Detmer, Editor.

An executive committee was appointed, composed of the following students:

John A. Phillips, Chairman.

Charles G. Shoemaker.

Charles E. Detmer.

It feels rather natural, after two years of hard work, to be in harness once more and to greet again the familiar faces of our fellow students, to feel the hearty and sympathetic grasp of the hand of comradeship and to cement firmer those ties of friendship which are best understood by those who have struggled side by side for several years to attain the coveted goal.

It is not difficult to pick out a senior dental man these days around the medical building. The thoughtful and determined—I might say, grim—look upon the faces of the members of this class advertises that fact. This evidently is due in a measure to the announcement of the work which the boys must accomplish both in the Infirmary and the Dental Laboratory this year, and it is needless to say that the splendid record which the Class of '07 has made during the past two years will be augmented during the present session.

The specimens of the work done by the class during the junior year were submitted to Professor Walton Tuesday night and his complimentary remarks to the class for the quantity and quality of work presented were very encouraging, and it is safe to say there is hardly a man who will not strive during the year to live up to the expectations of the Professor. We have accomplished more work than any previous class, in the history of the school, entering their senior year. Under the able guidance of Professor Walton, we hope this year to break the record, both in quality and quantity, and to set an example for our junior brothers.

It is only fair to state that the Infirmary record made by the Class of '07 during its junior year was superior to that of any previous junior class in the school's history. Nearly the whole class last year accomplished practical work in the Infirmary, thanks to the untiring energy and skillful assistance of Dr. Bassett and his corps of assistant demonstrators. The familiar and kindly features of Dr. Bassett "on deck" on the opening day of the Infirmary were pleasing to the eye.

As the meeting of the class last Monday night closed rather abruptly after the election of officers, the writer had no opportunity of expressing his thanks for the honor bestowed on him on being elected Editor. He takes this means of doing so, and to state that he will endeavor to keep the class amused during the present session by his antics with the pen.

Saturday night, the Soph. Medics met at the Fritz Reuter Hotel at a smoker for the purpose of jollification and class election. A. C. Sorenson, the retiring president, thanked the class for its co-operation during his term of office, then proceeded with the election. The officers selected are: Charles H. Fair, Virginia, President; F. W. McKnight, Ohio, Vice-President; James Kavanaugh, Massachusetts, Secretary; William Jobson, Treasurer; M. S. Abel, Class Editor of The Mall; W. P. Wood, Ohio, was elected to keep the HATCHET posted on the doings of the class. The newly elected officers were ushered to the front and thanked the class for the honor bestowed on them.

The new president then appointed the following executive committee: S. W. French, Chairman; G. L. Weiler, R. W. Conklin, A. P. Clark, and J. L. Brooks.

S. F. Smith and C. Kaler, both members of the faculty at the Washington College of Music, entertained the class with music and clever impersonations.

Girls' Mass Meeting.

A mass meeting of the girls of the College was held at noon on Tuesday. Miss Ellis addressed the meeting. She advocated the installation of a chapter of the Y. W. C. A. at George Washington and told of the splendid work this association has accomplished. Miss Ellis also spoke of the position of the girls in college matters in a way that showed her cordial feeling for the girls and her friendly wishes for the advancement of their highest interests.

The Woman's League.

Every girl who attends G. W. U. is cordially invited to attend the social to be given by the Woman's League on the evening of October 25th. The meeting will be held in the College Library.

Law Notes.

Despite the inclement weather and the consequent small attendance at the Fall convocation, the Law School was well represented and easily outnumbered any of the other departments of the University.

All of the law classes are taking active steps toward organization. The Seniors have set a date, October 30th, when they will have the usual spirited election, closely followed by a smoker at Rauscher's. Several candidates have been talked of and much interest is being evinced in the outcome.

The Junior Class also has had a class meeting and a tentative date has been set for the smoker at Rauscher's. Also a constitutional amendment is being considered looking to an earlier election than the constitution requires, viz: that the annual election be held in December. Last year's presidents in both of these classes are acting as temporary chairmen.

The Freshman Class has taken steps looking to organization. At a meeting held last Thursday night Mr. Frank Gilbert, of Sharon, Pa., was elected Temporary Chairman, and Mr. Hughes, Dean Vance's Secretary, is to hold that same office in his class. A committee consisting of Messrs. Meyers, Esterbrook and Gaines has been appointed to arrange for a smoker at Rauscher's, to be held in the very near future.

Apropos of class elections and deducing by a kind of synecdoche from the part to the whole the situation in the Law Department is this: Members of the law classes particularly shun, despise and otherwise detest their class meetings as they would the plague. Announcement of a class meeting calls forth all manner of inhuman utterings and growls. When the fatal time finally arrives the members burst from the room in the mad, consuming rush to escape the meeting. Some less brave hang about the doors, willing to spend the time till the first car arrives in hearing the deliberations of the class.

It seems indeed a shame that the HATCHET must take official notice of such a state of affairs, but the situation is one which justifies a public comment and censure. Class meetings are by no means a daily occurrence and the very least a student can do is to evidence some interest in his class as a whole. If class meetings are held on days when everyone is busy—change the date; if not, be on hand and waste (?) ten minutes—if only in discharge of a duty.

Dr. C. W. A. Veditz, of the College, has taken his abode in Dr. Lorenzen's room and the latter has moved upstairs.

Morris Stern, of the Law class of '06, and leader of the "Tight Wads" for several years, has settled in Milwaukee to assist settling "beer cases." He has already had several cases, in one he was counsel for defendant in a case of perjury.

Medical.

We are pleased to learn that Dr. Shepherd Ivory Franz has been elected Professor of Physiology.

He is spoken of by those who know him as an interesting teacher, patient and clear, and of great ability as a man of original research.

In 1894, he took the degree of Bachelor of Arts at Columbia University and in 1899 the degree of Doctor of Philosophy.

From 1895-1897 he was a fellow of Columbia University. Here he also assisted in Psychology, 1897-9. He was assistant in Physiology at Harvard Medical School 1899 to 1901 and at Dartmouth Medical College 1901 to 1904. Since 1904 he has been in charge of Pathological Physiology at the McLean Hospital, and Research Assistant at the Carnegie Institute.

His writings include a large number of papers in original research, subjects in the Psychological Review, the American Journal of Physiology and other scientific periodicals.

Last Wednesday night was chosen by the Seniors for the election of their class officers. The strife was good natured and they stand ready to support the winners to a man.

For President, J. K. Hayward, N. Y.; Vice-President, C. W. Burkett, Pa.; Secretary, Fred'k Monk, N. Y.; Treasurer, C. M. Chipman, Ky.; Historian, W. V. Levy, N. Y.; Sergeant-at-Arms, Wm. B. Carr, Jr., Va.; Editor Mall, J. A. Smith, N. D.

The executive committee is made up of: H. J. Stout, D. C.; Paul I. Carter, Cal.; Harry J. Warner, Ill.

The retiring president thanked the class for their hearty support of last year, and the new president came up nobly with a speech of thanks and vows to uphold the dignity and honor of the class, to the best of his ability.

R. D. Wolfe, '08, orderly at G. W. U. Hospital, is confined to his bed at that institution under the care of Dr. Taylor. Suspected typhoid. Mr. Wolfe desires to thank the class for its substantial expression of sympathy and good will in the form of flowers, slippers, etc.

The Juniors to a man are delighted with the course this year, one improvement especially noticeable is in the matter of "quizzes." The professors in charge of this important feature of the work seem to have actually contracted the habit of punctuality. Here's hoping it will prove to be a continuous performance.

The Class of 1908 held its first meeting of the current year last Saturday evening, October 20, at which time the following officers were elected: President, John R. Littlefield; Vice-President, Frank J. Brown; Secretary, Wm. A. Bryan; Treasurer, S. H. Pyne; Class editor, Fred. S. Avery.

"The Galloper."

Raymond Hitchcock, former star of "King Dodo" and "Yankee Consul," will be seen at the Columbia Theater during the week of October 29 in a new farcical comedy entitled "The Galloper," the work of Richard Harding Davis. The play enjoyed a successful run in New York last season and is said to be brilliant in epigram and satire.

European Electrical Ballet.

At Chase's next week, commencing at the Monday matinee, October 29, the principal novelty will be the spectacular production known as Harndin's great European electrical ballet, "Starlight." The bill will also include Fred Ray & Co. in travesty, Mr. and Mrs. Allison in "Minnie From Minnesota," George W. Day, the Josselin trio, Delphino and Delmora, Herr Saona and the motion views, "No Wedding Bells for Him."

"Eight Bells."

The Brothers Byrne will appear at the Academy for the week of October 29, presenting their pantomimic comedy "Eight Bells." The Brothers Byrne are recognized as acrobats and pantomimists of skill. In the new "Eight Bells" they have prepared many surprises and novel tricks.

"John Hudson's Wife."

At the Belasco Theater the week of October 29 "John Hudson's Wife" will be presented. The company will be headed by two well-known stars, Miss Hilda Spong and Mr. William F. Hawtrey. The play is said to make a strong appeal to those characteristics which are uppermost in the hearts of honest people.

New Musical Comedy a Success.

"Mamzelle Sallie," the latest musical comedy by Raymond Hubbell and Robert Smith, the authors of "Mexicana" and "Fantana," which will be at the National Theater next week has made a great hit.

"And I Laughed," sung by Katie Barry, is encored again and again.

"The Six Little Hairdressers," sextette, is said to be in line for great receptions wherever heard. This act took seven encores. The scenery and costumes are said to surpass in beauty and magnificence all previous efforts.

Farce comedy, pure and simple, with plenty of good music, is what the Arrival of Kitty, which comes to the Majestic Theater next week, opening with a matinee Monday, is claimed to be. It is one of the few farce comedy offerings that is devoid of the old worn-out horse-play comedy, and is as refreshing as a spring morning. There are enough good things in the line of sparkling comedy and catchy music in the three acts to satisfy the ordinary theater goer.

Columbian College.

ENOSINIAN.

The regular meeting of the Enosinian Society was held Friday evening, October 19th, in the College Building. The criticism and extemporaneous speech were given by Mr. Lamb. About a dozen new members were elected.

The subject for debate was: Resolved that Cuba should be admitted to the United States under a territorial form of government. Messrs. Gates and Dahn spoke on the affirmative, while Miss Barbour and Mr. Rhee supported the negative. The society and the judges agreed in awarding the debate to the affirmative, but on the merits of the question the decision was for the negative. First honors were awarded to Mr. Gates and second honors to Mr. Rhee.

The society has under consideration a constitutional amendment regarding the award of its debater's medal. Each debater is to be graded by the society on a basis of 100, and at the end of the year these grades are to be averaged. The six persons with the highest averages are to take part in a final public debate for the gold medal.

The society is experiencing great prosperity. The attendance at this, its first debate, was the largest for several years, and it is expected that the next meeting will be even larger.

The subject for debate at the next meeting, November 2d, is as follows:

Resolved, That Senators should be elected by direct vote of the people.

Mr. Seiler and Mr. Van Vleck will support the affirmative and Messrs. Lamb and Marye, the negative.

The Society's newspapers, the Bee and the News, will be presented by Mr. Baer and Mr. Allis.

The meetings of the Society are open to the public.

Y. M. C. A.

On Tuesday, October 16th, Mr. Fred B. Smith, the well known speaker to men, addressed the George Washington Y. M. C. A. Club. Mr. W. C. Van Vleck, the president of the Club, presided over the meeting.

In the course of his remarks, Mr. Smith pointed out the value of a Y. M. C. A. Club not merely as a matter of sentiment, but because of the valuable aid it could give its members. He rejoiced at the fact that it is no longer possible to recognize a college Y. M. C. A. man by his sanctimonious actions and conversation; that to-day it is an organization of strong men, mentally, morally, and physically, founded on a platform broad enough for every clean man to stand upon.

The president of the local Y. M. C. A., Mr. Woodward, spoke briefly assuring the Club of his hearty interest and support.

Definite plans for the season's work will be announced shortly.

Miss Edith Ridout entertained a number of friends at her home, No. 1517 Corcoran Street, last Saturday evening. It was decided to organize a "Cherry Tree Club," with regular meetings throughout the winter.

Freshman dance, November 2d, at the College. Admission by card only. Invitations may be obtained from the Class Presidents.

Mr. J. F. Seiler, President of the Junior Class, has appointed the following committee to make arrangements for the class dance:

Mr. C. McInturff.

Miss J. Moyer,

Miss Mahan,

Mr. A. M. Daniels,

Mr. E. P. Gates.

The regular election of officers for the combined Junior Class of Columbian College and the Washington College of Engineering was held Thursday, October 19th. The meeting was well attended and great unanimity of union was shown, almost a two-thirds vote being recorded in every case for the successful candidate. Those elected were:

President—Mr. J. Frank Seiler.

Vice-President—Miss Jennie A. Moyer.

Secretary—Miss Bertha Person.

Treasurer—Mr. Carl McInturff.

Editor for the Mall—Mr. E. P. Gates.

Faculty.

Dr. George L. Raymond, Professor of Aesthetics in our University, is offering a new course in philosophy. Dr. Raymond has surely done some excellent work since he has been in the University, making this branch of philosophy very successful.

Dr. M. T. Price, Assistant Professor of Chemistry in our University, has returned and started all of his classes. We thank Mr. Edwin Smith, Jr., for the efficient work he did during the absence of Dr. Price.

AMONG THE FRATERNITIES.

Chi Omega.

On October 13th a theater party was given in honor of the Phi Alpha Chapter of Chi Omega.

The Chi Omega Fraternity gave a very enjoyable dance on Wednesday evening at the home of Miss Pauline Stevenson.

Pi Beta Phi.

Pi Beta Phi has cards out for a reception to meet Miss Jackson, the president of Alpha Province. Miss Jackson will visit Columbia Alpha Chapter the latter part of the week.

Kappa Sigma.

Alpha Eta Chapter of Kappa Sigma is located at No. 2021 H Street, in what its members believe to be the most comfortable fraternity home in Washington. Three very successful smokers have been given and the outlook for the year is good. The Washington Alumni Chapter will hold its meeting at the chapter house.

Psi Omega Smoker.

Last Saturday night the local chapter of the Psi Omega dental fraternity gave its first smoker of the season at the rooms of the fraternity, 1532 I Street.

Every active member was present, together with several Psi Omega members of the dental faculties of the George Washington and Georgetown Universities, and many graduate members in the profession in this city.

The production of as much smoke as possible appeared to be the most important thing on the program, and the relating of summer vacation experiences, and the renewing of ties broken at the close of the college in June were next in order.

Drs. Thompson and Wolfe of the George Washington faculty, and Dr. Bowles of the Georgetown faculty, gave short talks on the subject of college fraternities, their value to the professional student, etc., and other less serious subjects. Drs. Crane and Madert also addressed the men in the lighter vein.

Refreshments were served later in the evening, and many a man had to foot it home, having missed the last car.

Sigma Kappa.

A select combination of convicts, burglars, kings, queens, witches, ghosts and gypsies with a lady of color and a policeman thrown in for good measure helped not only to wake up the neighborhood, but also to make Tuesday, October 16th a date long to be remembered in the social life of the College. The occasion for such an unusual outburst of merriment was a masquerade party given by the girls of Sigma Kappa at the home of Miss Moyer. The fun began early in the evening and lasted until even the street cars had retired to rest. "How to behave when under arrest," a practical demonstration by one of the guests, added greatly to the amusement of the evening. Those present were: Misses Barbour, Clift, Craig, Connor, Greene, Harnden, Harrington, Hurley, McGroarty, Moyer, Sebree, Smith, Swartwout and Wilson, and Messrs. Block, Dahn, Gates, Getzinger, Harnden, Marye, Merritt, Newhall, Rutherford, Seiler, Singleton and Van Vleck.

The Classical Club.

The first regular meeting of the Classical Club was held Thursday, Oct. 18th, in Professor Carroll's Lecture Room. The following old members were enrolled for this session: Professor Carroll, Dr. Smith, Mr. Peck, Mr. Peake, Mr. Owen, Mr. Edler, Miss Heath, Miss Bethune, Miss Birch, Miss Burroughs, Miss McCoy, Miss Bodner, Miss Ridout.

The following new members were elected: Miss Cabell, Miss Evans, Miss McAvoy, Miss McMullen, Miss Moyer, Mr. Schoenfeld, Mr. Singleton.

Officers were elected as follows: Professor Carroll, President; Dr. Smith, Vice-President; Miss McAvoy, Secretary; Mr. Singleton, Treasurer.

The President then announced the Standing Committees as follows:

First—Committee on Periodicals: Dr. Smith, Chairman.

Second—Committee on New Books, Professor Carroll, Chairman.

Third—Committee on News from the Classical Field: Miss Heath, Chairman.

Fourth—Committee on Entertainment: Miss Birch, Chairman.

The next regular meeting of the Club will be held on the evening of Friday, Nov. 9th, and will be a reunion of all the members of the Club. Letters will be read from old members who are too far away to attend. An interesting program is being prepared. The Club has entered upon its work with great enthusiasm and looks forward to a most profitable session.

—Notwithstanding the severe lessons taught the midshipmen by the courtmartial and dismissal of last spring, hazing has again appeared at the Naval Academy.

The University Congress.

The question, "Resolved that it is the sense of this body, that the interests of the people of the United States will be best conserved by the election of W. R. Hearst to the Governorship of the State of New York," provoked many dissensions, criticisms and tilts among the members of the Congress last Saturday evening. The discussion demonstrated that there are few men loved so fervently by their friends and hated so bitterly by their enemies as Hearst.

The gentleman from Maryland opening for the resolution declared Hearst a trust buster and paid a tribute to his fight against the Coal and Gas Trusts. The gentleman from Wisconsin, leader of the opposition, showed the inconsistent disposition of Mr. Hearst, and characterized him as the nominee of a bossed convention and the candidate of Tammany.

The surprise of the evening was furnished by the gentleman from Virginia who "declaimed" that it would be to the interests of the Democratic Party to have Hearst defeated. "But," he declared, "though I have no use for such bolters as Mr. Hearst, I will not be a bolter myself and will vote for this resolution." Someone suggested that the gentleman thus admitted that a Democratic victory would not be to the interests of the people of the United States. The gentleman from Kentucky, following, declared that if Mr. Hearst's election meant a defeat for the Democrats in the Presidential year, it would be a good thing, but added that he believed that the Republicans would carry not only New York but the country as well.

The gentleman from the Keystone State, closing for the opposition, compared the Hearst before the public with the Hearst in private life. His papers, he contended, were the versatile product of a versatile man, since on one page could be found "Tips on the Races," by Tod Sloan, on another "Hints for the Lovelorn," by Beatrice Fairfax, and on still another an editorial by Brisbane, alias Hearstbrain, on Government Ownership. The gentleman from Arkansas, in closing, charged that Hughes was the Trust's candidate, the friend of special interests and the foe of the masses. He refuted many of the charges against Mr. Hearst's character and declared that he was the workingman's friend.

Though the Republicans fought gamely, they were handicapped by numbers, and on a strict party vote, the resolution was passed.

The gentleman from Kentucky announced a series of lectures to be open to the public, and delivered under the auspices of the several debating societies. These will be held on Saturdays in University Hall and will be followed by the proceedings of the Congress.

Next week the Congress will discuss the question, "Resolved that Labor Organizations are Beneficial to the Laboring Classes."

Special Notice.

Owing to an incorrect impression which prevails that only students of the Law School are entitled to membership in the University Congress, an invitation is hereby extended to the students and alumni of any department of the University to become members. The work is less formal than that of the Debating Societies, and to those students who do not anticipate the study of the law should prove more interesting. Come out and enjoy the meetings every Saturday night at 8 p. m.

The Alumni Association.

The Alumni Association of the University is one of the best organized bodies of its kind in the country. It has as officers: Mr. William B. King, president; Wm. H. L. Hodgkins, Secretary, and Mr. John B. Larner, Treasurer. The Association has recently appointed Mr. H. G. Thomas as financial secretary to solicit contributions for the fund for the construction of the Alumni Hall on the new University site. Mr. Thomas is being very successful and if his luck continues the Alumni of this University will have one of the best structures in the world. Dr. H. L. Hodgkins is to be congratulated on the work that he did this summer for this fund by soliciting five hundred dollars.

This Association has 3,300 members, of which number there are 600 on the active list. There are besides this general Association five other alumni associations composed of the graduates of our University. These are as follows: Puget Sound Alumni Association, Colorado Alumni Association, Salt Lake City Alumni Association, New York Alumni Association and Southern California Alumni Association.

Junior Dental Election.

At a meeting of the Junior Dental Class on Monday night, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

President, J. Walter Bernhard;
 Vice-President, Henry C. Young;
 Treasurer, Casper F. Helmig;
 Class Editor, Walter H. Hildreth.

Medical.

As the echoes of the last speech died away the newly elected executive took the chair and plans and projects for the ensuing year were discussed.

A committee was appointed and instructed to arrange for a rousing smoker in the near future.

After some discussion it was decided that at the regular meetings on the first Saturday evening of each month following the order of business, the class resolve itself into a sort of embryonic medical society for the consideration of matters of especial interest to and within the grasp of students doing third year work. Each member is to be called upon to prepare a paper to be read before the class, and the reading is to be followed by a free discussion. He will be allowed to choose his own subject, and it is predicted that this plan will be productive of great good along the line of individual development.
